SUMMARY OF RESULTS OF SURVEILLANCES

It is noted throughout surveillance logs that numbers such as H-36, E-11, L-8, A-36, etc., appeared. These numbers refer to photographs taken of individuals which have been identified through this surveillance.

Surveillance began on August 8, 1973, at Richie's on Broadway; and it is noted that on this day a bald-headed man came out of Richie's looking at a racing form at which time AUGGIE PALMISSANO wrote on a pad of paper, the bald-headed man gave AUGGIE some money, and this individual left the area driving a vehicle with plates [redacted] It was later determined this plate was improperly recorded. b6 b7C

Throughout the surveillance it was noted a constant flow of people entered and left the tavern staying only a minute or two. It was also noted numerous individuals entered the tavern with brown paper bags and departed tavern without the bags. It was also noted other individuals entered the tavern without brown paper bags and departed with a brown bag.

On August 9, 1973, surveillance continued and numerous other individuals which photographs were taken of in an earlier surveillance, were identified entering and leaving the tavern. It was also noted that a blue sedan bearing California plate [redacted] was ripped off by [redacted] and two other unknown individuals that night. [redacted] took several boxes from this automobile and placed them in a green Volkswagen, Wisconsin plate [redacted] It could not be determined what was in the boxes, but it was noted the owner of the California car became very upset when he discovered his car was ripped off and made efforts as if to call the police. [redacted] and crew discouraged this. b6 b7C

On August 11, 1973, surveillance continued. It was noted that a green, four-door Pontiac bearing Illinois plate [redacted] arrived with a young white male and young white female. They met another young white male and female driving a black-over-red Mustang, Wisconsin plate [redacted] and they appeared to snort coke from a brown bottle. The meeting lasted approximately ten minutes and Agents overheard the girl advise the Illinois car was her mother's.

On the same date, three white males arrived in a red panel truck, plate [redacted] and met with [redacted] at the front of the tavern. Special Agent [redacted] overheard [redacted] yell to these white males, "Get the money." The three white males departed in the red van. b6 b7C

On August 13, 1973, surveillance continued. It was noted that a marked police car pulled up with two uniformed policemen. One policeman entered Richie's and two minutes later leaves. Police car drives away, blue plate [redacted] Approximately 49 minutes later the same police car arrives and the same officer entered then left Richie's. Squad car departed the area. At 6:13 p.m. the same police car again arrived at Richie's and the same policeman entered Richie's. At 6:20 p.m. this policeman departed the tavern, entered squad car, and left the area.

On August 14, 1973, surveillance continued. At 2:25 p.m. [redacted] arrived at the market area, talked with numerous Italian-looking individuals including subject, and then departed area. At 5:15 p.m. [redacted] entered tavern. At 5:17 p.m. [redacted] leaves tavern, retrieves a parking ticket from his pink Thunderbird, and entered tavern. At 5:19 p.m. [redacted] departed the tavern. At 5:43 p.m. two Milwaukee Police officers in uniform enter Richie's, Squad number [redacted] plate number [redacted] At 5:44 p.m., officers and [redacted] departed tavern carrying three boxes of corn which officers placed in the trunk of the squad car. Officers then departed the area. b6 b7C

It was noted a white male driving a blue Chevrolet with 1972 Colorado plate [redacted] entered tavern. It was also noted on the side of the car located on the front door of the driver's side was the following lettering: b6 b7C

[redacted]
LING, AGT. WWIB.

On September 15, 1973, surveillance again initiated. It was noted that [redacted] exited Richie's Tavern and talked to [redacted] and was heard to say, "Have you seen [redacted] He then went back inside.
